1) Circle the correct facts about The Epiphany in France:

La fête des Rois

La fête des Rois is celebrated 3 / 6 / 12 days after Christmas. It is the day that we say that the 3 Kings/ Shepherds/soldiers arrived at the stable to find Jesus after following the star (L'étoile).

In France, families celebrate by baking a special cake called 'La galette des trois / rois / poisson'. A little ornament called 'une fève' is hidden inside before the cake goes in the oven. 'Une fève' is like a lucky duck / charm / day. If you are the lucky person to find the 'fève' in your piece of cake, then you are a servant to / dressed like / crowned the King or Queen for the day. You can give orders / presents / sausages to the rest of your family.

2) Complete the phrase:
