Headteachers report

Disco was a great success with 66 children , paying on the door was good and also it was thought that holding it during the lighter nights was better .The music eve was good ... the venue was good and lots of help from Rugby club and Lloyd Williams . Next year the music eve will be at the Tacchi Morris Centre on the last Thursday of spring term.

Thank you to Nick Coker for the new pole, it is looking good with the new braides .

Admissions for September are high .. there were 26 applicants for 16 places .. there will be 96 on the register for September .

PTFA notice board is not noticeable enough We need to find a more noticeable place , it was suggested that the Bike it plus board could be used when that has finished .

The big project for this year will be the canopy for the early years garden , the first quote came in at £7.612 + vat for 5mx 5m section . We will be getting 3 Quotes .
